

BUSINESS SPEAKER SERIES: RESOLVING CONFLICT IN THE WORKPLACE

November 21 | 12 – 1:15 p.m.

Zoom and La Plata Campus,
Center for Business and Industry
(BI Building), Room 113E

Join us for the latest installment in the Business Speaker Series with a presentation by Dr. Trenace Richardson on the topic “Resolving Conflict in the Workplace.”

Did you know that being unable to deal with conflict in the workplace can limit your success? Does a fear of causing conflict keep you from telling others your best ideas? Do you hope to avoid conflict by ignoring it?

Even if you avoid conflict, it will eventually find you. Effective leaders have the ability to recognize and resolve conflicts in the workplace. Join us to hear valuable information about how managing conflict in your workplace, and being a better leader, could help advance your career.

RSVP today to receive Zoom link:
www.csmd.edu/BusinessSpeaker

With over 20 years of leadership experience in the public and private sectors, Dr. Trenace Richardson is a highly respected leadership researcher and practitioner. She has spoken to audiences across the country, helping businesses, churches, civic organizations, and individuals excel in the areas of personal and leadership development.