MISSION

The College of Southern Maryland enhances lives and strengthens the economic vitality of a diverse and changing region by providing affordable postsecondary education, workforce development, and cultural and personal enrichment opportunities.
VISION

CSM will be the region’s first choice for accessible, inclusive, and innovative education that transforms communities.
For the seventh consecutive year, CSM ranks as a top post secondary school for veterans and their spouses. Also, CSM is in the top 10 for small community colleges in the nation in the latest listing determined by VIQTORY, a service-disabled, veteran-owned small business.

CSM has twice been recognized among the top 150 community colleges in the country by the Aspen Institute in its Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence Program.

More than 1,418 CSM students transferred to 271 different colleges and universities in 2021-22. Destinations include Maryland’s universities and highly regarded schools across the nation.
Governor Larry Hogan appointed Laura Polk, Health Sciences Division Chair, to be the associate degree nurse educator representative for the state of Maryland.

CSM’s Talons robotics team consistently excels in national and global competitions, ranking tenth and eleventh worldwide in Technology and Skills, respectively, at the 2022 VEX Robotics World Championship.

CSM is recognized by the National Security Agency and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Information Assurance.
• CSM is the sixth largest community college in Maryland.

• Students save, on average, $29,000 on their bachelor’s degree by starting at CSM and transferring with an associate degree.

• 64% of CSM students attend part time.

• 83% of CSM’s full-time faculty hold a master’s or doctoral degree.

• CSM offers 270+ transfer agreements with 70+ partnering four-year institutions, including the University of Maryland, Towson, Salisbury, Virginia Commonwealth, George Mason, UMBC, University of Maryland School of Nursing, and more.

• 64% of Southern Maryland public high school graduates going on to college choose to start at CSM.
• The college has created a Professor of Equity and Diversity position. This individual began work in August 2022.

• In FY22, CSM awarded 910 associate degrees and 663 certificates.

• Over 400 high school students participated in dual enrollment in Fall 2021.

• Students who earn an associate degree from CSM can expect approximate wages of $45,000 per year, 25% more than someone with a high school diploma or equivalent working in Maryland.

• In the past five years, the CSM Foundation has awarded $3 million to more than 3,000 students.
