

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN MARYLAND & TOWSON UNIVERSITY
December 15, 2021

ELECTRONIC MEDIA AND FILM B.S. Degree
Film and Media Studies Concentration

College of Southern Maryland, LaPlata, Maryland, and Towson University, agree to follow the articulation of courses outlined in the articulation (course equivalency) document, for completion of requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree in Electronic Media and Film: Film and Media Studies Concentration (Attachment A), which is attached to, and incorporated by reference into, this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). The following principles guide the operation of this MOU, with the requirements for transfer in specific curricula set forth in Attachment A.

1. Towson University will accept a maximum number of 64 credits from College of Southern Maryland as outlined in the Attachment A. The number of transferable credits specific to this program is reflected in Attachment A.
2. Students who have completed the Associate of Arts Degree in the Digital Media Production program at College of Southern Maryland may transfer into Towson University's Electronic Media and Film program with junior standing provided that the student has completed all courses identified on Attachment A with a cumulative GPA of 2.00 or higher. Courses completed at College of Southern Maryland with 300 or 400 level Towson University course equivalencies will transfer as lower-level credit but will satisfy course content as indicated.
3. Only courses in which a grade of C (2.00) or better is earned will apply toward the major at Towson University.
4. In accordance with the MHEC transfer policy pertaining to general education requirements, Towson University will accept the completion of College of Southern Maryland's general education requirements (GenEds) and students will be required to complete courses at Towson University to satisfy the remaining Core Curriculum requirements as shown in Attachment A.
5. Towson University recognizes college-level experiential learning gained through previous work, military and/or volunteer service or life experience. Credit for prior learning may also be established through course challenge or standardized credit by examination.
6. College of Southern Maryland students transferring to Towson University will be given every consideration for financial aid and will be eligible to compete for academic scholarships upon entrance to Towson University subject to stated scholarship deadlines.

7. Both College of Southern Maryland and Towson University agree to work together to facilitate the transfer of students from College of Southern Maryland to Towson University to work cooperatively to insure the high quality of the programs at the respective institutions. Transfer of students will be in accordance with policies and procedures of both institutions, as they may be amended from time to time.
8. This MOU will be in effect initially for ten years, beginning fall 2021, with a review every two years by both parties. Any revisions the parties deem necessary must be evidenced in writing and signed by the authorized officials of each institution. The MOU may be terminated by either party for due cause and after adequate notice of not less than six months is given to the other party.
9. Towson University will establish procedures to provide information on the academic progress of College of Southern Maryland students enrolled as part of this MOU.
10. This MOU, when signed, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties respecting the matter hereof.
